
SULSA News – 30 May 2011

Follow us on Twitter: @SULSATweets

@SULSATweets

- SULSA's Executive Director visits Biogenouest facilities as part of European Sharebiotech project. <http://bit.ly/mrGW3D>
- SULSA researcher Oliver Ebenhoeh publishes on Mass-balanced randomization of metabolic networks in Bioinformatics - <http://bit.ly/kvE79n>
- The @royalsoced encourages young academics and professionals to contribute to solving the challenges of the current age <http://bit.ly/mLt4zn>
- SULSA Prof Tim Newman publishes on Correlating Cell Behavior with Tissue Topology in Embryonic Epithelia <http://bit.ly/mFXWrE>
- SULSA Prof Neill Bulleid publishes on role of divalent cations on integrins during their intracellular trafficking <http://bit.ly/ldXGKm>
- SULSA researcher John Mitchell publishes on Informatics, machine learning and computational medicinal chemistry - <http://bit.ly/m4RgL2>
- The first meeting of the Scottish Phylogeny Discussion Group will be on 16 June 2011 in St Andrews - <http://bit.ly/IFR1lq>

SULSA News

- SULSA is looking forward to the 2011 annual SULSA Symposium next week (7 June) at the University of Glasgow. (Registration for the event has already closed.) To download a copy of the event programme in advance, click here. <http://bit.ly/kHiYe0>
- SULSA's Executive Director – Den Barrault – recently presented SULSA to the European ShareBiotech partners <http://bit.ly/mrGW3D>

SULSA Events

- Annual SULSA Symposium - 7 June – University of Glasgow – <http://bit.ly/gyNtgs>

Non-SULSA Events

- PiCLS Annual Symposium – 10 June 2011, University of Dundee <http://bit.ly/mnqCcT>
- “Detecting incomplete lineage sorting and gene duplication in non-binary species trees” - The first meeting of the Scottish Phylogeny Discussion Group - 16 June 2011 - St Andrews <http://bit.ly/IFR1lq>